9 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
10 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

11 RICHARD L. GRUBER,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14 KAREN GEDNEY, et al.,

15 Defendants.

Case No. 3:15-cv-00543-RCJ-VPC

DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME TO REPLY TO
PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION (ECF NO. 91)
TO MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT
(Second Request)

16 Defendants, Romeo Aranas, Karen Gedney and Dana Marks, by and through counsel, Adam Paul
17 Laxalt, Attorney General of the State of Nevada, and Gerri Lynn Hardcastle, Deputy Attorney General,
18 hereby move this honorable Court for an enlargement of time to reply to Plaintiff's opposition to 19 Defendants' motion for summary judgment. This motion is made and based on Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)(1), 20 the following memorandum of points and authorities, and all pleadings and papers on file herein.

21 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

22 I. RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY

23 This case is a pro se inmate civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. ECF No. 34.
24 Plaintiff, Richard Gruber (Plaintiff), alleges that Romeo Aranas, Karen Gedney, and Dana Marks
25 (collectively, Defendants) were deliberately indifferent to his serious medical need of Parkinson's disease
26 by refusing to treat Plaintiff. Id. at 3.

27 On March 13, 2018, this Court extended Plaintiff's time to respond to Defendants' summary
28 judgment motion. ECF No. 91. Plaintiff timely filed his opposition to Defendants' motion, see ECF No.

91, and Defendants' reply brief was due April 3, 2018. Due to personal obligations, Defendants' counsel was unable to complete her clients' reply by April 3rd and moved for an enlargement of time to file the reply. ECF No. 94. This honorable Court graciously granted Defendants' motion and allowed Defendants up to and including April 10, 2018 to file their reply. ECF No. 95. Although Defendants and their counsel intended to comply with today's deadline, counsel has encountered an office emergency that prevents her from finishing and filing the reply brief today. Accordingly, counsel respectfully requests two additional days to file Defendants' reply brief.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

District courts have inherent power to control their dockets. Hamilton Copper & Steel Corp. v. Primary Steel, Inc., 898 F.2d 1428, 1429 (9th Cir. 1990); Oliva v. Sullivan, 958 F.2d 272, 273 (9th Cir. 1992). Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)(1) governs enlargements of time and provides as follows:

When an act may or must be done within a specified time, the court may, for good cause, extend the time: (A) with or without motion or notice if the court acts, or if a request is made, before the original time or its extension expires; or (B) on motion made after the time has expired if the party failed to act because of excusable neglect.

"The proper procedure, when additional time for any purpose is needed, is to present to the Court a timely request for an extension before the time fixed has expired (i.e., a request presented before the time then fixed for the purpose in question has expired)." Canup v. Miss. Valley Barge Line Co., 31 F.R.D. 282, 283 (D.Pa. 1962). The Canup Court explained that "the practicalities of life" (such as an attorney's "conflicting professional engagements" or personal commitments such as vacations, family activities, illnesses, or death) often necessitate an enlargement of time to comply with a court deadline. Id. Extensions of time "usually are granted upon a showing of good cause, if timely made." Creedon v. Taubman, 8 F.R.D. 268, 269 (D.Ohio 1947). The good cause standard considers a party's diligence in seeking the continuance or extension. See, e.g., Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations, Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 609 (9th Cir. 1992).

III. DISCUSSION

Here, Defendants request two additional days to file their reply brief, or up to and including Thursday, April 12, 2018. Defendants and their counsel sincerely intended to comply with today's deadline. However, an office emergency unfortunately prevents counsel from finishing and filing the

1 reply brief in accordance with today's deadline. Consequently, Defendants respectfully request that they
2 be allowed to file their reply brief no later than Thursday, April 12, 2018. Defendants have demonstrated
3 good cause for the enlargement of time, and they do not believe that Plaintiff will be unfairly prejudiced by 4 this short extension.

5 IV. CONCLUSION

6 Based on the foregoing, Defendants respectfully request that this honorable Court grant the instant
7 motion and allow them until Thursday, April 12, 2018, to file their reply brief.

8 DATED this 10th day of April, 2018.
